Church of Christ

Vol. 57 No. 5
 February, 4 2018

From the desk of Josh Ketchum

Willfully Forget

In 2 Peter 3, the scoffers are said to willfully forget or deliberately overlook the fact that God previously destroyed the world in a flood (v. 5). They know the fact, but they intentionally set it aside. They willfully put it out of their mind.

What are some possible things that we can tend to willfully forget?

These are things we know about, but we try not to think about them.

- That we should read our Bible
- That we should pray
- That we should give
- That a shut-in needs a visit
- That my spouse needs affirmation of my love and devotion
- That my kids need to be taught today
- That the Lord is returning and I will be judged

These are things we know we should be doing. We may even think about them in our day. But for some reason, we decide to overlook them. We push the thought aside and fail to do what we know we should do. Let's be self-disciplined and choose to do what we should do!
