From the desk of Tyler Alverson

Over the last week, we have all had to deal with snow. Sometimes, snow can be very exciting. I imagine that some of us were outside over the last few days building snowmen, sledding, or throwing snowballs. Sometimes, snow can be a hinderance, especially if we have somewhere to be.

One of the ways that the Bible talks about snow is by using it as an illustration for what God can do to our sin. As Isaiah says in Isaiah 1:18, "Come now, let us reason together, says the Lord: though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they are red like crimson, they shall become like wool." Speaking to God, David writes something similar in Psalm 51:7, "Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean; wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow." Snow should remind us that God has the power through Jesus to take a soul that is deeply stained with sin and make it white as snow. What an awesome, merciful, and gracious God we serve!
